THE GRASS.

I come creeping, creeping everywhere;
By the dusty road-side,
On the sunny hill-side,
Close by the noisy brook,
In every shady nook,
I come creeping, creeping everywhere.

Here I come creeping, smiling everywhere,
All around the green fields,
Where sit the aged poor,
Here where children play,
In the bright and sunny May,
I come creeping, creeping everywhere.

Here I come creeping, creeping everywhere;
My humble song of praise,
Most gratefully I raise,
To Him at whose command
I humbly bow my head,
Creeping, smiling, creeping everywhere.

CELEBRATION

4TH OF JULY,
AT
St. Mary's College,

Mr. Editor: Knowing how much every thing national interests you, I take the liberty to send you an account of the celebration of the 4th of July at St. Mary's College for publication in your respected paper. This day looked for so ardently by every one, in whose bosom there beats an American heart, but much more so by the students of a literary institution, in whose breasts the names of Miltiades Themistocles Scipio and other patriots are associated with those of Washington and Clay was hailed with shouts and cheers at St. Mary's which reverberated from the surrounding hills and groves. The students had risen earlier than usual, and when the bell rang to make them bid farewell to their flattering morning dreams, the yard was already alive with many, who were impatient to see their dreams realized and not even the dread of a little examination in Christian doctrine before the right Rev. Bishop of Louisville who honored the institution with his presence could damp the spirit of hilarity which prevailed among them. Before the ceremony commenced the Right Rev. Bishop administered the sacrament of confirmation to some of the students. This sacred rite performed, the examination commenced and immediately after it the melodious sounds of the College Band announced that the tribute of patriotism, was about to be rendered to those champions of liberty, who have called America into existence, and made her eternal. After the Declaration of Independence had been read, to renew in every one present the sentiments of its framers and to be as it were the title of the picture which was going to be represented. Mr. SAMUEL C. ABELL, from Hardin County Ky. ascended the tribune and poured forth in an address the feelings which pervaded his soul on this birth day of American liberty. The orator managed his subject with care and propriety his ideas and their arrangement were well conceived and betrayed a mind well tutored and versed in national feelings and penetrated with a deep sense of the importance of his theme. He was succeeded by JAMES A. MUND from Green County, Ky. who expatiated on the glories of the progressive age, uniting all the prominent features of the day. He presented a dazzling and brilliant picture which could not fail to produce the impression it was calculated to make. The audience was highly gratified by his exposition and expressed its satisfaction by frequent applause. The concluding address on the part of the Philomathian Society was delivered by Mr. THOS. A. CRAYCROFT from Meade County Ky. Whosoever heard this young gentleman upon the 22d of February, on which occasion we had already the pleasure of admiring his talents was obliged to confess that his feelings on that, as also on this occasion were sincere outbursts of genuine patriotism. This address was followed by a humorous play entitled "Trick for Trick," performed by some members of the Cosmopolitan Society. The single parts were well acted and caused a good deal of merriment to the audience. Then came a Valedictory address delivered by JOSEPH B. MONTGOMERY of Davis County Ky., a melancholly tone on the one hand and sincere gratitude on the other pervaded the whole. The youthful orator did honor to his talents. The distribution of premiums and a few but very kind and appropriate remarks from the Right Rev. Bishop of Louisville concluded the ceremony, the single parts of which were connected by means of the College Band, which young as it is, deserves our highest encomiums. At the dinner which followed the ceremony and which bespoke the liberality of the conductors of the Institution, all those social virtues were displayed which render society both agreeable and profitable. After the regular toasts a great many volunteer toasts were proposed all of which met with loud applause. The dinner being over the students of the neighboring counties prepared for departure in order to exhibit the proofs of their toils to their parents. The glee which had taken possession of all hearts assuaged greatly the grief of separation and the hope of soon seeing each other again deprived this tender moment of its pangs. Thus the day passed without a cloud disturbing the high spirits which had been roused from their slumber by the cheers of national joy throughout the land and we trust that the Institution of St. Mary's will continue yet for a long time to instill the real and genuine feelings of patriotism into the minds of those who are entrusted to its parental care.

12th, President of the United States: He has entered his office under the most favorable auspices, such as may enable him not to be unworthy of any of his predecessors: May his administration be marked by justice, patriotism and virtue, and redound to the welfare of the whole country.

T. LAWLER, President of St. Mary's College—The Students of St. Mary's College: ever dear to their President; may they, on their return to their happy homes, show to their parents, by their handsome deportment, that their fond hopes are realized, viz: they have improved.

M. M. COGHELAN—The Day we celebrate: may its each anniversary be celebrated with joy, and find a ready response in our bosoms.

H. SCHMITT—The Students of my class: may they not forget during vacations, him whose pride it was to be their friend during the year elapsed, and may they be next year as diligent and docile as I have known them to be this year.

J. W. HOGAN—The Orators of the day.
C. KUHL—Students of St. Mary's College: may the blessings of God, and prosperity and happiness attend you all wherever you go.

IGNATIUS G. DRURY—Our Liberty: The gem and pride of America; won by our forefathers, cherished by every true hearted American, extended by wise and judicious administration, may it continue its happy influences until the time shall come when it will be bound down by no sectional interest, held to no locality, but broad and glorious, as expansive as the air, that is wafted by the winds of heaven from pole to pole.

THOMAS A. CRAYCROFT—The Faculty of St. Mary's: Their exertions during the past have been only for our advancement; may they receive as a small recompense, our gratitude, and a hope that they may enjoy a long and happy life.

I. A. MUND—Governor of Kentucky: The manner in which his administration has been thus far conducted is an honor to him and his predecessors: may his name be cherished and remembered by every true and genuine lover of patriotism.

SAMUEL C. ABELL—J. L. Helm, ex-Governor of Ky.: The supporter of protective and intrinsic national greatness, but an opposer to that, reared upon the ruins of home industry; which is more glaring than solid. He has attained the end of his exertions, when he beholds Kentucky take her stand in the grand march with her sister States.

FERDINAND SCHNETZ—Bishop Spalding: The Student's lover, the orphan's father, and the protector of the helpless; the God of Heaven, in whom he places all his trust, will grant him a death as triumphant as his life is useful and charitable.

THOMAS DAVIS—The Union: The source of our freedom, our former renown, our present national felicity, and our hopes for the future: may it remain as immutable among the vicissitudes of a changing world as the ocean rock amid the heaving waves.

ALONZO F. CALLAHAN—Alexander Hamilton: The incorruptible patriot; the unconquerable defender of our liberty, and the accomplished Statesman. One of the first to fan the almost extinguished flame of liberty and the founder of our national credit: may his name, (which even Washington pronounced with respect,) be remembered with the warmest emotions of gratitude, by all of us, for whose emancipation he labored with such unceasing industry.

E. C. HAGAN—John J. Crittenden: An honor to his State, an honor to the Union a patriot an orator: may his sagacity not be lost to our glorious confederacy.

CHARLES B. COMBE—Clay: One of the greatest statesmen of his day, although defeated twice for the Presidency, nevertheless he was qualified for the office. As an orator he was surpassed by few, and as a senator by none: may his name be cherished in the heart of every true American citizen, and may his character be taken as an example by the present youth of America.

J. C. JOHNSON—Kentucky: May she, the brightest star of the West, ever be a ready and zealous supporter of our glorious Union; and may her noble sons, who have ever been jealous of their liberties, remain firm and unshaken in their attachment to their State; and may they be the last to seek a dissolution of the confederation of which they form a part.

JAMES LANCASTER—Ex-President Fillmore: Proudly and manly has he conducted the noble ship of America over the agitated waves which came dashing from the Cuban shores; content with once having filled the highest office in the gift of his fellow citizens. He now only asks that peace and happiness attend his country.

JAMES E. GRAVES—St. Mary's College: The guiding star to renown. Perseverance has always been her motto, knowledge her aim: may she prosper, and may the time come when the greatest men of our Union can point to her as the place where they received their education.

GEORGE F. SHACKLETT—Gen. W. Scott: A true patriot, a defender of his country, a brave soldier, a great General; unconquered except by his own countrymen: may his name be loved by the virtuous, respected by envy, unstained by calumny, ever remain the brightest and most brilliant in glory's sky.

ADDISON ABELL—Members of Philo. Society: Exulting in their cause: may they excel Clay and Webster as distinguished statesmen and orators, their memories be cherished as the glorious patriots who signed the Declaration of Independence.

JOSEPH WOODFORD—Gen. Taylor: That noble and generous patriot who obtained for his country the glorious and successful victory of Buena Vista: may his memory ever glow with the renown he achieved on that occasion.

ANTHONY W. DAVIS—Louisiana: The supporter of the Union, the abode of liberty and the friend of the oppressed: may she ever continue to pursue the untrodden path of fame; may the brilliant star of her glory never set; and may she, when discussions divide our Union, raise her proud and noble voice and cry out "The Union forever."

J. V. DURAND—The President and Vice President: may our deep gratitude and love to them, prove to them a reward for the cares, the trouble and the interest they have taken in urging to study, and so doing draw on them and on us the benediction of Heaven.

PATRICK SIMMS—The Philo. Society: They have this day done honor to themselves, to the College and to their parents. They have by their rhetorical, logical and overwhelming eloquence opened a passage to our hearts and raised all our patriotism: may they never derogate from the path of honor; and may they live to see the noble principles on which they expatiated to-day with such eloquence, carried out to the fullest extent.

JOHN A. TYNAN—To the Memory of Wm. Rufus King: One of the greatest statesmen of his day: may his memory long live fresh in the hearts of every true Democrat, and his name be transmitted to posterity, as one of the greatest statesmen and leading Democrats of his time.

WM. MAXLEY—My native State: The star of the East; a firm and steadfast friend of civil liberty, and unwavering supporter of the glorious Constitution: may she prosper and stand firm against disunion and show herself one of the brightest stars of the Republic.

BISHOP FLAGET—The venerable and much lamented follower of Christ, who carried the torch of Christianity to the utmost extent of civilized America. He seemed one of the poorest and meekest christians and was one of the greatest of saints: may his charity, his humility and his devotion to the salvation of sinners be our model, and may we follow him to the land of eternal bliss.

REVD. THEOBOLD MATTHEW—His memory will be revered after his body has decayed.

E. F. WOODFORD—A land of the free and home of the exile: A land distinguished for its hospitality and renowned for its patriotism: may she be the last to crumple at the feet of despots, and the first in the ranks of Whiggery.

CONCLUDING TOAST BY
RT. REV. DR. SPALDING—Post Virtutem Nummi:—After Virtue Money—A motto, the reverse of that of the Roman youth, under paganism, as stated by the Roman poet: may this preference of virtue to money making, ever be the guiding principle of the youth educated in Catholic St. Mary's.

Mr. Editor: Permit me through the columns of your paper, to endeavor to bring the intemperate Temperance Men, a little to their senses. There is, at the present time a good deal of talk on the subject of temperance; so much so, that you can scarce hear of anything else, read of anything else or dream of anything else. Temperance, I admit, is an excellent thing. Temperance in eating, drinking, sleeping, and in fact in every act, is commendable; but I am unwilling to accede to the carrying a war against any particular evil, to an unreasonable and unwarranted extreme, will redound to the benefit of mankind in general, or to individuals. The past history of the world exhibits many instances of intemperant zeal for religion; which makes the blood curdle in our veins. The present temperance move, as I understand it, aims at the entire suppression of the manufacture, and traffic in ardent spirits; in other words, the "Maine Liquor Law," with all its beauties is now the aim of the temperance movement, disguise it as they may. This law, I think, is unconstitutional and unreasonable and is well worthy of the bigotted fanatics who gave it existence and the frozen uncharitable minds of its natal State.

The temperance men have a threadbare argument, which they all use, when the subject of constitutionality comes up; it is this: "If the State has the constitutional authority to partially restrain the sale of liquor by her license laws, she has the same authority to stop the manufacture and traffic altogether." I consider this bad logic, and rather a summary way of jumping at a conclusion. To illustrate: The authorities License Pedlars, Showmen, Patent medicine vendors &c., would the most rampant Temperance Man argue that it would be just or in compliance with the letter and spirit of the Constitution, to publish an edict to the effect, that from and after a certain date the above mentioned, would no longer be tolerated in Kentucky, and that a heavy penalty would be visited upon whosoever disregarded said edict.

I have merely touched upon this one argument, not wishing to tire you, your readers or myself, (for I am not fond of writing,) but I hope to take up my pen again; that is if I am not annihilated by the "men in buckram."

Maple Sugar.

An intelligent farmer in Waitsfield, Vt., has discovered an effectual method of removing the coloring matter from maple sap, so that it will make sugar nearly as white as common crushed sugar. His method is to filtrate all his sap before boiling, through a hopper or box of sand, which he says takes out, not only the dirt, but all the stains derived from leaves, twigs, crumbs of bark, and all other coloring matter that can prevent the sugar from being pure and white.

Courage in a Bird.

About two months ago, on descending the hill from Stockcross, a weasel, with a mouse in its mouth, was seen crossing the road closely pursued by a robin, which frequently pounced on the weasel, uttering shrill notes of defiance. The weasel turned many times, and at last, on reaching the grass on the road side, it dropped its prey and went back to attack the robin. This was avoided by the bird rising in flight, and immediately darting to the side of the mouse, whose cries of distress had doubtless attracted, and excited its sympathy. Before the observer could reach the spot, the weasel had again seized the mouse, and retreated with it into a hole in the adjoining bank, the mouse being either paralyzed with fear or too severely injured to avail itself of the chivalrous interposition of its feathered friend. The bird, regardless of the presence of the witness, or trusting to his aid, continued for some time to flit rapidly from bough to bough on the hedge-row, making the most plaintive outcry.—English paper.

PRECOCITY.—We never read accounts of extreme advance in life, without thinking of the remarkable progress the present age is making, and to help it along, the precocity of modern youthhood—as illustrated:

"Grandfather," said a saucy little imp, "how old are you?"

The old gentleman, who had been a soldier in the war of the revolution, and was much under the ordinary size, took the child between his parental knees, and patting him on the head with all the affection of a second childhood of life, said:

"My dear boy, I am ninety-five years old!" and then commenced to amuse the lad with some of the incidents of his life, at the conclusion of which he addressed the youngster: "but my son why did you ask that question?" when the little rascal, with all the importance of a Napoleon, strutted off, and hitching up the first pair of pantaloons he ever wore, after approved sailor's fashion replied:

"Well it appears to me you are darned small of your age!"

There is none of the right kind of blarney grows round in sufficient quantities where such boys are raised.—Chicago Jour.

The horse warranted to stand without trying, which a man bought at auction the other day, is offered for sale by the purchaser with the guaranty that he will not move without whipping.

THE POST.

Wednesday Morning July 13. 1853.

Wanted, Immediately.—A young lad, of from 12 to 15 years of age, to learn the printing business. A boy of good moral character, of a sprightly intellect, who can come well recommended, can have a chance to obtain a good and lucrative trade.

To Our Patrons.

Here we are once more, dear reader. Hope you have not been very lonesome during our absence; and yet we cannot help wishing that you missed our presence, during the past two weeks. Our sheet, this week is somewhat barren, in the miscellaneous department; on account of local matters, such as 4th of July celebrations, distribution of prizes, &c. Our first page will be found to contain original matter, to the almost entire exclusion of our usual dish of varieties. This, it is true, interests a portion of our patrons, but there are some who will scarcely look at the page; those for instance who have been in the habit of looking to this page for light reading. We call particular attention to the celebration of the 4th; therein may be found, some very fine and patriotic sentiments. Then, there is the distribution of prizes at Calvary; we recommend all of our patrons to peruse it, for they may find the name of some dear young friend or relative, receiving some of the first honors. There is a communication from "A Temperate Temperance Man," who, although we do not feel inclined to endorse what he says, we think talks pretty sensibly. Our second and third page, as you perceive, contains the very latest news, as usual.

Since the above was in type our only hand has left us, and we are perfectly at a loss to know the reason. We had conferred favors and kindness upon him, which few other men would have done, and yet he left us just at a time when we were most in need of his services. Had he come to us and told us he was dissatisfied, we would have had nothing to say; for we told him when he ran off from Mr. Gunter, of Elizabethtown and come to us that if he got dissatisfied, to tell us, and we would get another hand. But no, he sneaked off like a culprit in the night. He also left considerably in our debt, and he knew it. He came to us naked, and we advanced money to him to purchase decent clothes. He was in debt in Elizabethtown, and we sent the money there and got the gentleman's receipt.

The name of this youth is THOMAS A. JONES, about 16 years of age, and of a sullen morose disposition. We would advise our fellow craftsmen to have nothing to do with him. He may attempt to pass himself off as a journeyman printer, but he is no part of one.

Owing to the above cause, we will be unable to put out a paper next Wednesday. We are truly sorry to tax the kindness of our patrons so severely; yet we do hope they can plainly see in what a fix we are in. We will endeavor to procure the assistance of a good study journeyman printer, and then we hope to plant the Post permanently, so that the like will never happen again, if we possibly can help it. There is no foreseeing such occurrences as the present. One thing, our patrons may rely on, and that is that they shall not lose anything by our misfortunes, we will make it all up to them, if we work our fingers off in doing so. Until you see us again, good bye.

We have had several refreshing rains during the past week in this county. Everything in the shape of herbage is now looking up. The corn crop in this and the surrounding counties began to look rather sickly, and great fears were entertained of a failure in that very important product. The oat crop will be decidedly short one foot and a half being a fair average. Never, we presume has the soil of Marion County produced better crops of wheat than it has this year. O, it is delightful to look upon the rich yellow grain as it stood waving like a sea of gold, or full beneath the lusty stroke of the cradler.

A young man from Washington county, on entering Louisville for the first time, a week or two since, inquired of his companion, if it was not County Court Day? He could not imagine what else could bring so many people together.

4th of July.

The "glorious 4th," dawned upon our happy town with prepossessing aspect. The air was balmy and the weather pleasant. There was no noisy demonstration, no thundering artillery rent the quiet either, no smell of powder smoke as of a hotly contested battle-field titillated the olfactory; as in our boyhood's days. All was calm and quiet. Scarce a breath of air fanned the cheek or brushed back the coquettish ringlets of beauty's fair representatives.

Between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, we bent our foot-steps towards the small Locust Grove in front of the Male Academy in the outskirts of our town. Here we beheld a large audience seated and standing beneath the very acceptable shade of trees. The Sons of Temperance of Lebanon, together with those of the Order who answered, with their presence, the general invitation, from Springfield, and we believe Bradfordsville, stood in front of a staging erected for the speaker and presiding officer.

After the members of the Order, assisted by some fair ladies, had sung some appropriate pieces, (and we will add, by way of parenthesis, very handsomely too,) the Declaration of Independence was read in a very excellent and impressive manner by T. B. HUGHES, Esq., of Springfield. Rev. Mr. MONTGOMERY, of Harrodsburg, then took the stand, and poured forth a perfect torrent of eloquence and argument in favor of the Temperance Cause in Kentucky. The Reverend gentleman held the undivided attention of his large audience for some time, but every one was willing to testify to its seeming shortness. Suffice it to say, that he handled his subject with a master hand, and displayed a vast deal of research among the workings of the liquor traffic.

The Preamble and Resolutions, (which were handed to us for publication, and will be found appended below,) which were prepared for the occasion, were then read, by Dr. J. C. MAXWELL, and unanimously adopted by the members of the Order present. After which "The Star Spangled Banner," was sung with great beauty and feeling.

The presiding officer of the day, WM. E. RILEY, Esq., of Springfield now arose, and announced that the hour for partaking of the refreshments had arrived; stating the fact that the ladies had to be attended to first. This, we thought entirely superfluous in this land of chivalry. After partaking plentifully of the edibles we withdrew, well satisfied with the manner in which we had spent our 4th of July in 1853.

Here are the Preamble and Resolutions spoken of above.

For the Lebanon Post.

At a mass meeting of the friends of Temperance in the town of Lebanon, on the 4th instant, it was resolved, that

Whereas: The whole system of the retail traffic, and public tipping in ardent spirits, under sanction of Law, is a manifest and acknowledged evil, periling the peace prosperity and lives of our citizens, affecting the health, the morals and the happiness of the community; and, super-added to all this, a traffic that levies a tax on every tax payer in the county, to prosecute criminals and support its paupers. And whereas, public sentiment is calling loudly for reform and an entire prohibition of this iniquitous traffic,

Resolved, That the Judge of the Marion County Court, be requested to authorize the opening of a poll at each precinct in the county, at the ensuing election in August next, that the sentiments of the voters may be taken upon the question of License or no License; in order that our Representative to the Legislature of Ky., whoever he may be, can act upon this great question in accordance with the known and expressed will of the majority of his constituency.

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolution be handed to the County Judge.

Rencontre.

On last Thursday, the 7th, a rencontre took place between one Shan Skinner and Maston Holland, in a Blacksmith-shop in Haysville, in this County. It is said to be an old grudge. Skinner knocked Holland on the head with a "clinch-iron" and then picked up an iron wrench and struck him several licks on the head, fracturing the skull. Holland is said to be in a critical condition.

Affrays.

In an affray one day last week, down near Raywick, in this county, a man by the name of Smith shot another by the name of Masterson. The ball entered his breast near the heart. He is thought to be in a dangerous condition.

The affray took place on the Nelson side of the line which divides the two counties, and Smith was examined at New Haven. At this examining trial, two men, names unknown, got into an argument about the occurrence. From words they came to blows, one cut the other with a knife in the melee. The wounded man is not expected to recover.

Horrible.

On last Thursday week, Mr. MARK GRAHAM of this County was stabbed in the most shocking manner by a negro. The circumstances are about these: Mr. G. attends to Mr. Hood's farm, about three and a half miles from Lebanon. He had been sick for some time, and was just convalescent: he had been out to the stables, and was returning slowly towards the house when two shots were fired at him, from the window. He hallooed to the person firing, and told them to be careful or they might hit some one. Scarce had the words left his lips, before the door flew open and out rushed a negro belonging to the farm, named Bowling, knife in hand. Mr. G. now saw his danger, when too late, and turned to run, but from weakness fell. Bowling then fell upon him with the knife, and inflicted five wounds upon his person; three in his chest, one in his back and one in his head, at the fifth stroke the knife broke, from coming in contact with a bone. The negro then went to the end of the house, in order to get a hatchet, which stuck in the logs, in order to finish his hellish work. In the meantime, Mr. G. got into the house, and upon the stairs; he pulled the stair door too and held it. The negro rushed to the door and endeavored to force it open with the hatchet. Mr. G. asked him what he wished to hurt him any more for, that he had killed him and could do no more. The negro told him to open the door and let him see whether he was going to die or not. Mr. G. opened the door, and his bloody aspect satisfied the negro, who threw down the hatchet and shook hands with his victim, telling him that they would meet in Heaven for he was sure the white folks would hang him. He then deliberately walked down to the county jail and gave himself up.

Mr. G. was not aware that the negro was on the place, he having been working in town all day: nor does he remember of ever giving him the slightest provocation for the diabolical deed. Mr. G. is recovering slowly under the skillful treatment of Drs. FORREST and SPALDING.

We understand that SAMUEL FRY, Esq., and Mr. CHARLES EGINTON, editor of the Temperance Era, will address the citizens of this place, on Friday night next, at 8 o'clock, on the subject of Temperance. A full attendance is requested. They will be accompanied, by E. W. Dowden, Mrs. Mary Shy, Miss Shields, Miss Thompson, Miss Dowden, and Mrs. Eginton. The interest of the occasion will be very much added to by the singing of appropriate temperance songs. So says the Era.

Clay Monument.

We publish for general information the following circular of the Chairman of the Clay Monument Association, and request the particular attention of the Committee of this County to its suggestions. We hope they will be carried out fully, and that on the election day, each poll will be furnished with a suitable contribution box, as suggested. It is true that we were never a great admirer of the great Statesman's politics, yet that never has prevented us from awarding to him our homage for his mighty mind, and for his firm, unwavering and consistent course in what he deemed right. Therefore, we think it the duty of every patriotic Kentuckian to give his mite towards erecting a monument upon the soil which should be proud of him, which will perpetuate his memory to future generations.

Office National Clay Monument Association.

LEXINGTON, KY., June 7, 1853.

The approaching election in August, has suggested it, as a most fit and propitious occasion to call public attention, in Kentucky, to the deeply interesting enterprise, which proposes to commemorate the glorious life and character of HENRY CLAY, by the erection over his grave of a testimonial of gratitude, worthy the national character.

We respectfully urge each and every county committee to have prepared suitable boxes, (one for every precinct in the county,) to be placed in charge of a special committee or active agent, who shall take his stand at the polls and call upon each and every voter casting his vote, to make a contribution to the Clay Monument Fund.

No Kentuckian will stand back and refuse his contribution, but all will unite without distinction of party, and respond nobly to the call. Contribute more or less according to your means. One united and vigorous effort will raise the means to push forward this work to the point which will secure its early and glorious accomplishment.

ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA.

HALIFAX, July 6.

The America arrived this morning, with Liverpool dates to the 35th. The Arabia arrived on Saturday morning, in less than ten days.

Turkey.—The Porte finally refused the last ultimatum on the 16th, but the Prussians had not crossed the Danube, and the probabilities were that war would not ensue.

Accounts from China are meagre. The Americans were assisting the Emperor, while the English remained neutral.

The parliamentary proceedings are unimportant. The fleet would enter the Dardanelles, in consequence of the Russian's occupying the Danube provinces, after which Austria will offer to mediate and negotiations will commence; and the crisis will terminate peaceably.

The cotton speculators at Blackburn and Darwin threaten a strike.

The crops in Ireland indicate an early harvest.

France.—Ministerial changes are announced. A remarkable statement is current that the Emperor intends to submit the question of peace or war with Russia, to a vote of the people.

It is also rumored that the French Government had a copy of the Russian manifesto, &c., ten days since, and in conjunction with England has recommended the Porte to accede to the terms in the form of a note, instead of a treaty. The Minister contains a decree regarding the affairs of the Bonaparte family.

The Emperor assumes the sole mastery. His consent is necessary to the marriage of any divorced Bonaparte. No Bonaparte is allowed to go more than 75 leagues from home without permission from the Emperor, and may be punished by arrest and exile.

M. Mauser has been appointed Minister at Naples, Buratti to Brussels.

Switzerland.—The government at Fribourg has called out a civil guard for fear of an insurrection.

Prussia.—The Berlin cabinet takes a neutral attitude on the Turkey question.

Italy.—There is much excitement in Lombardy and Central Italy, in consequence of the Turkish difficulties, and reports that Mazzini was again in Switzerland.

Austria has a large camp near Varessa, and it is reported that the Swiss troops in the King's pay will be withdrawn by order of the Republic.

Russia.—A statement from St. Petersburg of the 4th, states that no final resolution, respecting the occupation of the Danubian proviso would be taken until the refusal of the Porte to the ultimatum was received.

A dispatch from Constantinople of the 16th says that the ultimatum had been finally rejected, and it was thought that the policy of Russia was to exhaust the resources of Turkey by causing immense outlays for her defense.

It was reported that the Russians had entered Moldavia and were proceeding to Bucharest.

Menchokoff is named as Governor of Crimea.

Advices from Odesa mention an advance in grain in consequence of the large purchases for the Russian troops.

NEW YORK, July 7.

The America's mails are due here to-night.

The Herman arrived this morning with London dates to the 22d.

The capture of Nankin is confirmed; also the evacuation of the city and the defeat of the rebels outside.

The British troops have been ordered to Shanghai for the protection of British interests.

As the U. S. steamer Susquehanna was going up to Nankin with the American Commissioner, she grounded and finally returned.

The pirates are busy on the coast, and had attacked several English vessels. All was quiet at Canton. The import trade was large.

Business is entirely suspended at Shanghai.

The steamer Mississippi was expected at Shanghai on the 27th of April.

The Atlantic arrived out on the 21st.

BALTIMORE, July 7.

There was an accident on the Baltimore railroad last night. The train due here at midnight was thrown from the track, this side of Wilmington by a piece of wood beam placed across the road. The passenger and express cars were shattered. Three persons were standing on the platform to avoid paying their fare, and one of them was killed, the other two were badly injured. The company offer a reward of $500 for the arrest of the perpetrators of the mischief. A meeting of the citizens is to be held here to-night to make preparations for the reception of President Pierce.

WASHINGTON, July 7.

The Republic says that the frigate Columbia is ordered to Pensacola to take Mr. Borland to Central America; but nothing is known of his movements. He has not communicated with the State Department since he left Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 7, P. M.

The statement that the President has declined public receptions on his proposed trip to New York, is untrue. I am authorized to say that he will leave Washington on Monday, and remain in Baltimore that night, and that he will reach Philadelphia and leave there Wednesday, and arrive in New York on Monday evening.

His suite will consist of Mr. Guthrie, Mr. Davis, Gen. Cushing, Judge Campbell, and Mr. Sidney Webster.

NEW YORK, July 5.

The Fourth was celebrated here in grand style. A number of accidents caused by carelessness occurred.

A riot occurred in the morning, in which fire-arms and paving stones were freely used by the Irish. Many of the police and citizens were seriously injured. The riot was caused by the running away of a pair of horses attached to an omnibus, which came in contact with the Hibernian Company and broke their ranks, when they pulled the driver from his seat and beat him so badly that his life is considered in danger. The rioters were finally subdued, and 36 were arrested.

SAVANNAH, July 2.

The cotton factory at Bowenson was burned with all its contents.—valued at $50,000.

THE CROPS.—Tobacco.—The long drouth has proven most disastrous to the oat crop throughout Jackson's Purchase. Many farmers will not save as much as it took to sow the ground.

The corn crop in some places looks tolerably well, though it is very low, and unless it rains very soon it will be too late to do any good.

The tobacco crop is cut short fully two thirds, admitting that it immediately became seasonable; and unless we have rain very soon, there will not be a fourth of a crop made.—Paducah Dem.

ANOTHER FIRE.—A fire broke out in the Jersey City Saw Mills, which together with the planing machine and chair factory, with a large quantity of lumber, and 50,000 feet of dressed flooring, were destroyed. The loss is about $15,000.—No insurance. The establishment belonged to an Eastern company, and were under lease to Messrs. G. & S. H. Langstaff. Paducah Dem.

The Cincinnati Gazette of Wednesday, publishes over a column of Fourth of July incidents under the following heading, the particulars of which we omit for want of room:

FOURTH OF JULY.—Incidents of the day—Shooting and stabbing affrays—disgraceful fights and rowdyism—Fires—accidents with fire-arms and fireworks—run-aways—mad dogs—several citizens bitten—deaths by drowning—narrow escapes, &c.

NEW MODE OF ADVERTISING.—A clothing dealer in Fulton street, New York, has an omnibus with a fine span of horses running about the city, lettered "Free ride to all our patrons."

SUDDEN DEATH.—We regret to announce the sudden death of Mrs. Kean, the worthy lady of M. Kean, proprietor of the Louisville Hotel.—She was attacked by apoplexy Thursday evening, and died yesterday morning. She was a very estimable lady and was beloved by all who knew her. Mr. Kean had started East Thursday morning, leaving his wife in the enjoyment of excellent health, but at Madison he received a telegraphic despatch informing him of her condition, and he barely returned in time to see her before she died.—Low. Cour. July 9th.

Gov. Powell offers a reward of $300 for the arrest of Nicholas Murry and Samuel Murry, who are charged with the murder of Jonas Sutton in Rockcastle county—and $150 for the arrest of A. Sutton for the murder of Alex. M'Ilroy, of Washington county.

A Snake Story.

Sylvanus Shaw, of this town, says the Palmer Journal, while walking over his farm a few days since, discovered two large black snakes which retreated to a pile of brush, and then turning from under their cover, raised their heads and faced him with sparkling eyes and forked tongues. Mr. Shaw advanced a few steps when one of the snakes darted from its cover and entwined itself around his leg. Snatching up a billet of wood, Mr. Shaw struck the other snake on the head, but it presently recovered itself and escaped into a rotten log. Seeing the flight of its mate, the snake which encircled Mr. Shaw's leg in an instant uncoiled itself and followed its companion. Mr. Shaw tore open the log containing the snakes and killed them both. One of them measured seven feet in length and the other six. Black snakes are the most harmless of the snake family; they are exceedingly timid, and seldom, if ever, bite. At this season of the year, however, they often show fight, and will frequently pursue those who flee from them.

"During your travels in Canada, Mr. Slocum, did you meet with anything that arrested your attention?" "Yes Sir—a Deputy sheriff. He not only arrested my attention, but my person, and marched us both off to Lincoln county jail, 'for crossing the line' without paying duty on a yaller dog and a brindle tarrier." "That's sufficient, call the next witness!"

A Curiosity.

We were yesterday shown a cluster of bayonet-sheaths, nearly petrified, which were fished up near the wreck of the British frigate Hussar, which was sunk near Hurl Gate in the early part of the Revolutionary war. The bayonets were corroded and destroyed by the action of the salt water, but the leather of which the sheaths are composed is in a good state of preservation, and the stamps upon it are plainly preceptible.—New Haven Register.

HOW TO DO UP SHORT BOSOMS.—We have often heard ladies expressing a desire to know by what process the fine glass on new linens, shirt-bosoms, &c., is produced and in order to gratify them, we subjoin the following recipe:

Take two ounces of fine white gum arabic powder—put it into a pitcher, and pour on it a pint or more of boiling water, (according to the degree of strength you desire,) and then having covered it let it set all night, in the morning pour it carefully from the dregs into a clean bottle, cork it, and keep it for use. A tablespoon full of gum water, stirred into a pint of starch made in the usual manner, will give to lawns—either white or printed—a look of newness when nothing else can restore them after washing.

On Saturday last 100 head of two year old mules were sold in Marion county, in this State, at $150 per head. Hall & McAnn, of Fayette county, were the purchasers.—Low. Cour. 7th.

Must be a mistake friend HALDEMAN, We have heard of no transactions of the kind; at least at those figures. The highest figure we have any knowledge of, is, $130. Whilst in other counties mules are selling at $150 and $175, we are selling just as good animals at $120 and $130 which makes it decidedly to the buyer's advantage to come here.

CELEBRATION.—The opening of railway connection on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad to LaGrange, Tenn., was celebrated on the second inst., by a free barbecue. The attendance was large and a most glorious time ensued.

ROBBERY.—Mr. Burgess a returned Californian, was robbed last week, near Millersburg, Indiana, of $1,900 in gold.

MURDER.—The Paris, Ky., Citizen says that on the evening of the 4th inst., John Hastings, about 30 years of age, stabbed a young man named Thos. Williams in the abdomen with a bowie knife, making a gash about six inches, from the effects of which he died the same night. The origin of the difficulty arose from a quarrel between Hastings and the father of the young man.

Hastings was arrested and committed to jail for trial at the next term of the Bourbon Circuit Court.

STAMPED ENVELOPES.—The New York Tribune remarks that dissatisfaction with the stamped envelopes just issued by the General Post Office is very general. It arises from the fact that each of them bears on the back the card of Mr. G. F. Nesbit, of New York, the contractor by whom they are furnished. The Tribune thinks if this chance of circulating a business card had been offered to the highest bidder, it would have brought enough to pay the entire cost of the envelopes and a profit to boot. As it is, we are assured that many heavy commercial houses will not use them at all, though they would otherwise be large consumers.

The New York Journal of Commerce, speaking of the envelopes, says:—They are, as yet, but of a single size, of the three cent denomination. An indifferently executed bust of Washington, embossed and encircled by a brick red background, occupies the appropriate corner. Above and below the figure are the words signifying the value of the stamp. The back of the envelopes is gummed, ready for sealing. There is also Mr. Nesbit's advertisement on the back, for which there is no charge. We doubt the propriety of deforming the nation's envelopes, in this way, and are surprised that the Post General should permit it. Dr. Brandeth would furnish the envelopes gratis, bating the stamp, for the privilege of printing a small advertisement upon them.

A French Duel.

A Paris letter tells the following story: "A law student became enamored with a young lady, an artist, and was affianced to her. He devoted himself with great assiduity to the completion of his studies, that he might obtain a diploma which would make him honorable in the estimation of his betrothed. In one of their conversations, they got into an argument upon some abstruse point of law, or ethics, or science, and the discussion finally became so warm that the high spirited lady, finding it impossible to conquer her antagonist by the force of reasoning, resorted to the argumentum ad baculum, and actually boxed her lover's ears. Her hot temper soon cooled, and upon reflection she was so shocked at the outrage she had committed, that she insisted upon making some suitable atonement for the insult. The student, however, assured her that he was ready to overlook the incident, and proceeded to kiss the hand that cuffed him. This only aggravated the difficulty in the estimation of the chivalrous young woman, and separated the lovers further than ever. She declared she never would consent to marry a man who could receive such an insult as she had been guilty of inflicting upon him, without resenting it or demanding reparation. Finally, however, the love which she still retained for her unfortunate friend, suggested a mode of effecting an honorable healing of the breach. She proposed that the matter should be settled by a duel. This being her ultimatum, he reluctantly consented. The preliminaries were adjusted, seconds appointed, and the parties proceeded in a carriage together to the spot assigned for the combat. The lady loaded both pistols herself, the stand was taken, the word given, and the shots exchanged. Both were unharmed, the balls not having grazed either of their persons. Wounded honor, however, was duly healed, and the duellists rushed into each other's arms, full of love which was just as good as new. It appeared that by an artful deceit of somebody, the balls were made of something besides lead."

DR. GEOHEGAN'S
EXTRACT OF HYDROPIPER,
For Dyspepsia, Scrofula, and all impurities of the blood.

Prepared by one of the Faculty.

THIS vegetable remedy which is now spreading to all parts of the country, is prepared by a graduate of one of the first Medical Schools in the west; a physician of high standing in his profession, and as much opposed to empiricism or quackery as any one can be, as is shown by the fact that the recipe is published, and one panicle each bottle of the medicine, thus exonerating it from the charge of being a nostrum.

It is prescribed by Physicians, as well by the accompanying certificate.

Unlike Sarsaparilla the Hydropiper is quick in its action, the first bottle often producing wonderful results, as in the case of the negro girl of Mrs. Simmon's, of Louisville, who was relieved of Blindness in One Week!!

In short, it has excited the wonder and admiration of all who have used it, and wherever known stands at the head of all remedies for the following diseases:

Dyspepsia, Scrofula, White Swelling, Mesenteric Diseases or Negro Consumption, Scurvy, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Sores, Ulcers, and all Cutaneous or Skin Diseases, all female irregularities and obstructions, Mercurial Diseases, Secondary Syphilis, General Debility, and all disorders arising from impure blood and bad Habit of System.

For Female Complaints

this remedy stands unrivalled. Its effects are wonderful. It is a slight stimulant and a powerful tonic and alterative.

As a beautiful fever of the complexion, in the cure of pimples and blotches, in producing a clear and beautiful skin, it is a much more safe and sure remedy than all the cosmetics and lotions in existence. Try it and you will never regret it. Do not lose confidence if it should seem at first to increase the disease—the general effect of the medicine being to drive all impurities to the surface, and by that means out of the system.

HARDENBURG, Ky., Oct. 6, 1851.
Dr. A. E. Geohegan—Dear Sir: I have examined your receipt for Compound Fluid Extract of Hydropiper, for the cure of Scrofula in all its forms, and other chronic affections, viz Rheumatism, Female Weakness, &c. Having prescribed, and watched its effects in many cases of the above diseases, and having always found it effectual, I most cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted as the best alterative and tonic I have ever used; altogether superior to Sarsaparilla, and any of its compounds.

"You bachelors ought to be taxed," said a lady to a resolute evader of the noose matrimonial.

"I agree with you perfectly, madam," was the reply, "for bachelorism certainly is a luxury."

"Not in the least, honey; 'twas stoppin' so quick that hurt me."

"Why, my dear lady, do you think the merriest place in the world?"

SIMPLIFYING MARRIAGE.—The ceremony of tying the nuptial knot is very much simplified in the Hoosier State, as the following scene will show:

"What is your name, sir?" demands the justice. "Natty." "What is your name, Miss?" "Polly." "Natty, do you love Polly?" "No mistake." "Polly, do you love Natty?" "Well, I reckon." "Well, then," concludes the official dignitary, "I pronounce you man and wife, All the days of your life."

ELEVENTH YEAR

OF THE

LOUISVILLE

WEEKLY COURIER:

Acknowledged by general consent to be the Largest, Best and Cheapest Newspaper in the West.

In issuing the Eleventh Prospectus of the Louisville Weekly Courier, we have great pleasure in announcing that Mr. Wm. D. Gallagher, Esq., has purchased an interest in the establishment, and he will hereafter be associated with us in its management. Mr. Gallagher is widely known as an able political and literary writer and a gentleman of cultivated taste, and being thoroughly Western in his education, habits and associations, and conversant with our Railroad and Manufacturing interests, we flatter ourselves that he will add largely to the value and interest of the Courier, and render it still more acceptable to its thousands of readers in every section of the great Mississippi Valley.

The Louisville Weekly Courier, Edited and Published by

W. D. GALLAGHER & W. N. HALDEMAN.

Is one of the largest, handsomest and best papers in the Union, and for the quantity and quality of matter it contains and the great care taken in its preparation, it is beyond all question

The Cheapest Paper in the West!

As a NEWSPAPER, its character is well established. Our readers of many years will bear witness that for enterprise, energy and reliability, it has borne the palm from all its contemporaries in Kentucky. It is almost invariably ahead in the publication of important news. It procures news of interest from all quarters, both by telegraph and private express, up to the very moment of publication, and entirely regardless of expense.

As a Commercial Paper, the Courier stands without a rival in Louisville. The gentleman who has had charge of the Commercial Department for the last six years, and whose entire time is devoted to it, has no superior, and his reports may always be regarded as accurate and reliable.

As a Literary Paper, we intend that it shall hereafter occupy much higher ground than heretofore. The Tales and Novelles we publish will alone be worth ten times the price of the paper.

The Miscellaneous and Agricultural Departments will meet with all necessary attention. They will be both full and useful.

In Politics, the Courier will continue firmly Whig; but while advocating Whig measures and Whig principles, we do not intend to do so to the exclusion of our usual variety. Our readers may rest assured that they will not be sacrificed with policies through our columns.

Early in January we will commence the publication of the Original Stories:

The Martyr of the Heart, by Miss MATTIE GRIFFITH; The Little Cripple and his Foster Mother, by ALICE STANLEY.

A lady of Kentucky, whose literary productions have been greatly admired.

By adopting the Cash System, and strictly adhering to it, we are enabled to still further reduce the price of our paper, and will hereafter furnish it, large as it is, at the following

Unprecedentedly low Rates.

W. N. HALDEMAN & CO.,

Courier Steam-Printing Establishment, Third street, near Main, Louisville Ky.

Such of our country exchanges as copy the above or material part of it, will be entitled to the Daily Courier for one year.

Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1851, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M.D., in the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Another Scientific Wonder.

GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S

PEPSIN,

THE TRUE

DIGESTIVE FLUID,

OR

GASTRIC JUICE!

Prepared from Rennet, or the Fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M.D., Philadelphia, Pa.

"DIGEST!" Such is the true meaning of the word PEPsin. It is the chief element, or great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming a true Digestive Fluid, precise like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it.

This is Nature's own Remedy for an unhealthy Stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It contains no Alcohol, Bitters, Acids, or Nauseous Drugs. It is extremely agreeable to the taste, and may be taken by the most feeble patients who cannot eat a water cracker without acute distress. Beware of Drugged Imitations. Pepsin is not a Drug.

Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin infused in water, will digest or dissolve five pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Scientific Evidence.

The Scientific Evidence upon which this Remedy is based is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

Call on the Agent and get a Descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of scientific evidence, from Liebig's Animal Chemistry; Dr. Combe's Physiology of Digestion; Dr. Pereira on Food and Diet; Dr. John W. Draper of New York University; Prof. Dunglison's Physiology; Prof. Silliman, of Yale College; Dr. Carpenter's Physiology; &c., together with reports of cures from all parts of the United States.

Pepsin in Fluid and Powder.

Dr. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN is prepared in powder and in Fluid Form—and in prescription vials for the use of Physicians. The powder will be sent by mail free of Postage, for one dollar sent to Dr. Houghton, Philadelphia.

OBSERVE THIS!—Every bottle of the genuine Pepsin bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M.D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia Pa. Copy-right and Trade mark secured.

Sold by all Druggists and dealers in Medicine. Price ONE DOLLAR per bottle.

HARPER'S

NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

This Magazine has already reached a regular monthly issue of more than 100,000 copies; and is still steadily and rapidly increasing. The Publishers have endeavored, by a well-directed use of the abundant resources at their command, to render it the most attractive and most useful Magazine for popular reading in the world; and the extent to which their efforts have been successful is indicated by the fact, that it has attained a greater circulation than any similar periodical ever issued.

Special efforts will be made to render it still more interesting and valuable during the present year. In addition to the usual ample and choice selections of Foreign and Domestic Literature, an increased amount of Original Matter, by the ablest American Writers, will be hereafter furnished. The number of Pictorial embellishments will be increased; still greater variety will be given to its literary contents; its Editorial and Miscellaneous departments will be still further enlarged and strengthened; and no labor or expense will be spared to render it in every way, and in all respects, still more worthy of the extraordinary favor with which it has been received.

Harper's New Monthly Magazine owes its success to the fact, that it presents more reading matter, of a better quality, in a more elegant style, and at a cheaper rate, than any other publication.

Subscribers in any part of the United States may now receive the Magazine by mail for three cents a number, or thirty-six cents a year postage, either of the Publishers, Booksellers, or Periodical Agents.

Each number of the Magazine will contain 144 octavo pages, in double column space year thus comprising nearly two thousand pages of the choicest Miscellaneous Literature of the day.
